Eric,

Sorry for the delay, I have minimal office time these days. I hope this is the data sheet you are looking for.

Amy

Hey Amy:

Just checked these out and it looks like two of the documents are the same (water chemistry) though only one is identified as such and the other document is for sediment (grain size) samples. Can I bug you for the clam sheet document?

Thanks.
Eric

Hey Amy-

I'm sure you're out in the field on such a beautiful day, but at some point when you're back at your desk could you send me a copy of the Field Data Sheet you created for sampling Asian clams in 2014? I have a copy of the water quality data sheet, but not the one for benthic grabs. And if you have it in Word, I'd prefer that over a PDF. Thanks!

Eric

Eric,

We use Watershed Assessment Associates out of NYS as our current vendor for macroinvertebrate samples.
